

last updated: April 2, 2017

The small crime project is a joint project with Salima Douhou and Arthur van Soest. The project is based on a survey conducted in the Summer of 2008 through CentERdata at Tilburg University. The full survey (in Dutch) is available at [\[PDF\]](#).

The associated papers are:

1. Douhou, S., J.R. Magnus, and A. van Soest (2011). The perception of small crime, European Journal of Political Economy, 27, 749–763. [\[PDF\]](#)
2. Douhou, S., J.R. Magnus, and A. van Soest (2012). Peer reporting and the perception of fairness, De Economist, 160, 289–310. [\[PDF\]](#)
3. Douhou, S. and A. van Soest (2013). Explaining subjective well-being: The role of victimization, trust, health, and social norms, Prikladnaya Ekonometrika (Applied Econometrics), 31, 52–78.

Comments and suggestions are welcome and should be addressed to Jan Magnus